

1 As Navigators, we are eager for all Christ-followers to know, love, and serve Christ and to make more disciples wherever they live, work, study, play, and worship. Throughout the New Testament, Jesus called some of his followers to make all or part of their living from the gospel.

As you read these passages, make observations regarding:

- a Christ-followers who made all or part of their living from the gospel
- b What qualified them to do so?
- c Whom should we recruit to join us as salaried Navigators?

- Other thoughts

3 Who today is qualified to make all or part of their living from the gospel? (Use Scripture to shape your answer.)

4 Why might God lead someone to not make all or part of their living from the gospel?

5 From other parts of Scripture or from your own personal experiences and lessons, what additional principles should guide us as we invite people to a salaried staff role?

6 Write a two-minute sermonette you can use to recruit someone to serve God as a salaried Navigator staff. Consider using this outline:

- a Share one truth from Scripture
- b Share one story from your personal experience
- c Share one challenge you want someone to consider
